This topic is so important that it's covered in both elementary and middle school. Use the possessive nouns exercises and the possessive noun worksheets provided below to help your students learn how to use possessive nouns correctly. possessive nouns example Mary's dog Students often confuse possessive nouns with plural nouns because both types sound the same when spoken and end with the letter "s." However, possessive and plural nouns have very different functions. They are also written differently. Plural nouns refer to multiple persons, places, things, or ideas, while possessive nouns indicate ownership. Possessive nouns are punctuated with an apostrophe ('), while plural nouns do not have an apostrophe. You can recognize a possessive noun by its special ending, as most possessive nouns end with an apostrophe and "s."
